For the second time in three years, students were hampered with starting school late. This year, school was scheduled to open September 6, but did not start until September 29th. The strike put students behind other districts 17 days in terms of sports, vacation time, and even little things like planning class activities.

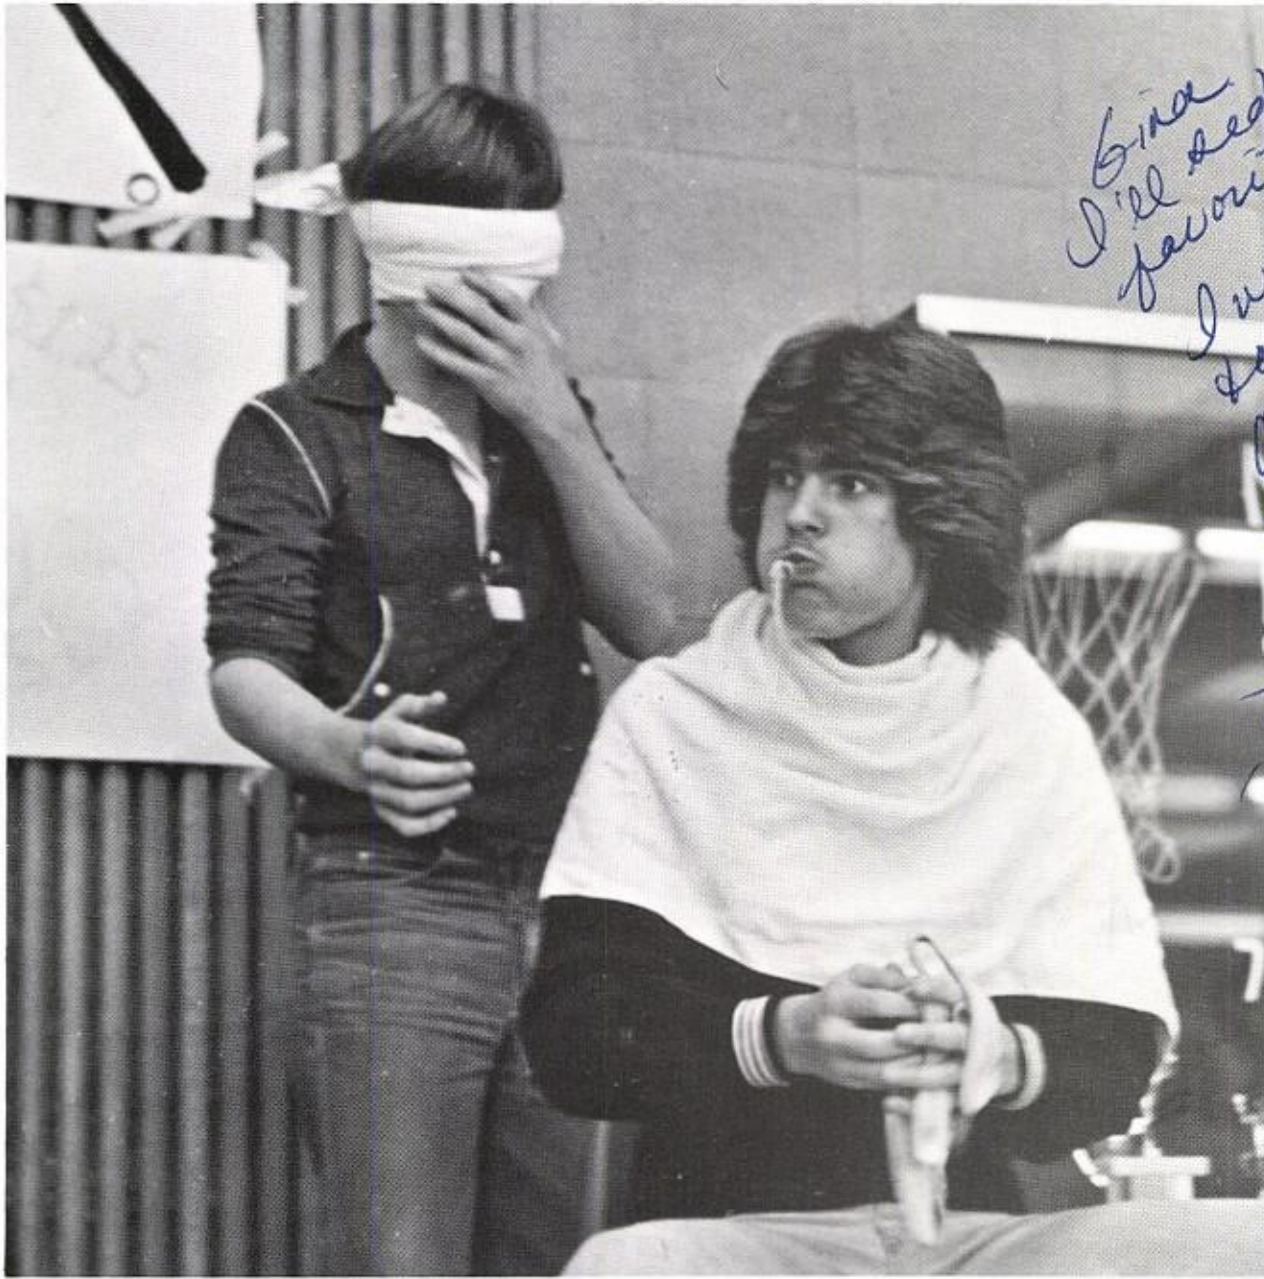

Although we were behind other districts the students of Nathan Hale showed their spirit, enthusiasm, and determination and got school off to a good start.

Jenna,

How many years have I known you? Well, no matter how long I've known you, you're still a good friend and nice one too. This school year has passed on so slow I can't even remember what I said during this school year. Well, Jenna I guess I'll just see ya later, I can't think of anything more to say.

TAKE A CLOSER LOOK AT SOPHOMORES . . .

"There is more freedom at Hale, but you are expected to live up to you're expectations."-Troy Stark

Underclass editor Cheryl Flayer has fun interviewing.

Ken Green takes a bite out of life.

... AND THE JUNIORS

We surveyed many Juniors and Sophomores this year and we came to some surprising results. 49% said marijuana should be legalized. And 49% said to the age of 17.

40% said the drinking age should not be lowered because some people can't control their drinking. They will go driving, cause many accidents, and insurance rates will increase.

The majority of people (90%) said the teacher's strike was justified. They had the right to strike, but they should have taken care of it in the summer.

30% of people said they did take part in the boycott. 75% said they stayed home or went Christmas shopping, and 25% said they went to the school board. 93% of the people said the students did have the right to boycott. After all, the teachers had the right and they went ahead with it. However, the boycott should have been more organized, so it could have come to a result.

Underclass organizer Laurie Engle wonders whether or not to sack the Underclass staff.

"I feel more experienced and comfortable as a junior."-Laurie McCoy

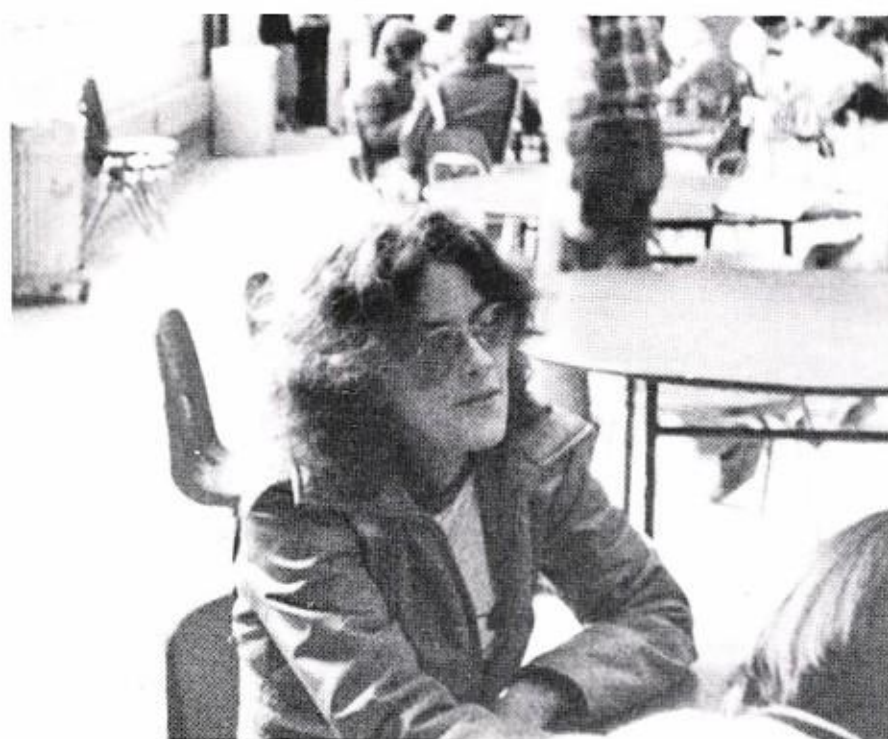

... IN SCHOOL ...

"I think the Juniors get more respect."-Alice Brown

"I think Hale needs more social gatherings."-Tami Long

17 PEOPLE WHO

The next four pages are dedicated to taking a closer look at those people who make our three years at Nathan Hale more liveable. These are people who, with their original ideas and subsequent supportive action have kept the old traditions at Hale alive, and at the same time instigated new traditions through creative and active thinking. These people, with their activities in and outside school, help us learn more about ourselves and about the people around us. We have tried to touch everyone, but Nathan Hale is a big school, so surely we have missed some who should and will be recognized more on a personal level by all who know them.

1. John Mele: Actor, comedian, scholar. He has worked as a yell leader, and has had leading or semi-leading roles in every school production in the past three years.

John has also been known to search for UFO's, make disgusting faces, and interview rabbits on KNCH-TV, antics which have, in a sense, taken over the program. Where does a senior who has played the lead in more productions both in and out of school than he can count on his fingers and toes, who thinks up all of his material in the shower, and who admittedly tries to steal the show each time he steps on stage-where does he go from here?

2. Sue Foster: The amount of activities that Sue Foster involves herself in far exceeds what a student would normally volunteer to do. Sue was very active as chairperson of the Senior Breakfast, Senior Cruise, ASNH Bulletin and the Christmas Family Committees. She was a host for a Japanese Exchange student and also found time to manage the cross country team and be captain of the swim team. Although Sue is constantly busy, she seems to keep up a positive attitude.

3. Eugene Onishi: Eugene is involved in activities both inside and outside of school. He has been involved with cross country, track, Asian Student Coalition, band,

INVIGORATE HALE

Jazz Ensemble, a recognized scholar, and has hosted a Japanese Exchange Student. Outside of school, Eugene is active in a drum and bugle corp and works part time. He feels Hale is a "pretty good" school and overall it has a good staff.

4. Jackie Yellin: "I like working here," exclaims Jackie Yellin, an instructional assistant in the library. Ms Yellin can be found helping students and teachers in the Social Studies and Language Arts sections. Her other duties include keeping an eye on the students, organizing the vertical file, and doing other "work in the library that needs to be done."

5. Rochelle Gayton: Emphasis on multi-cultural activities was Rochelle Gayton's goal as a senior at Hale. Rochelle decided that an organization for the black students would be beneficial for the students who are not usually involved in activities. "There are not enough activities concerning all the students" said Rochelle. For these reasons, Rochelle was the founder of the Black Awareness Council. Besides this accomplishment, Rochelle was the chairperson of the Election Committee and also had been a statistician for boys basketball 3 years.

6. The Exchange Students: Roderick Kurt Wiedmann from Germany, Marike Van Lier Lels from Holland, Laura Millan from Mexico, Viva Yela from Guatamala, and Marcel Schubert from Switzerland (not pictured), are here mainly to learn English, and get further knowledge of the American society. Their exposure to the school has been on a personal level, where they have touched people with their culture and their unique accents.

10

7. John Burke: Anyone who has had Mr. Burke for a social studies class would be intrigued by the way he handles the students in his classes. His sense of humor, enthusiasm and knowledge in his field reflects on the students and seems to make them more enthusiastic about his class. Mr. Burke has also been very involved as the coach for the girls softball team.

8. Dennielle Dent: Bubbling with energy, anyone can almost read the enthusiasm as she greets you in the hall. From the start, she decided to get involved in various activities:

she likes the chance to meet people and it adds a bit of spice to life. She has been working hard as the Vice President of ASNH for '79, but this doesn't complete her activities. She has also been on Raider Rousers for three years as well as the soccer and swim teams. She is also co-chairperson of YDD, and the Senior Reunion Committees. So next time you see her in the halls, (look low) ask her how she does it.

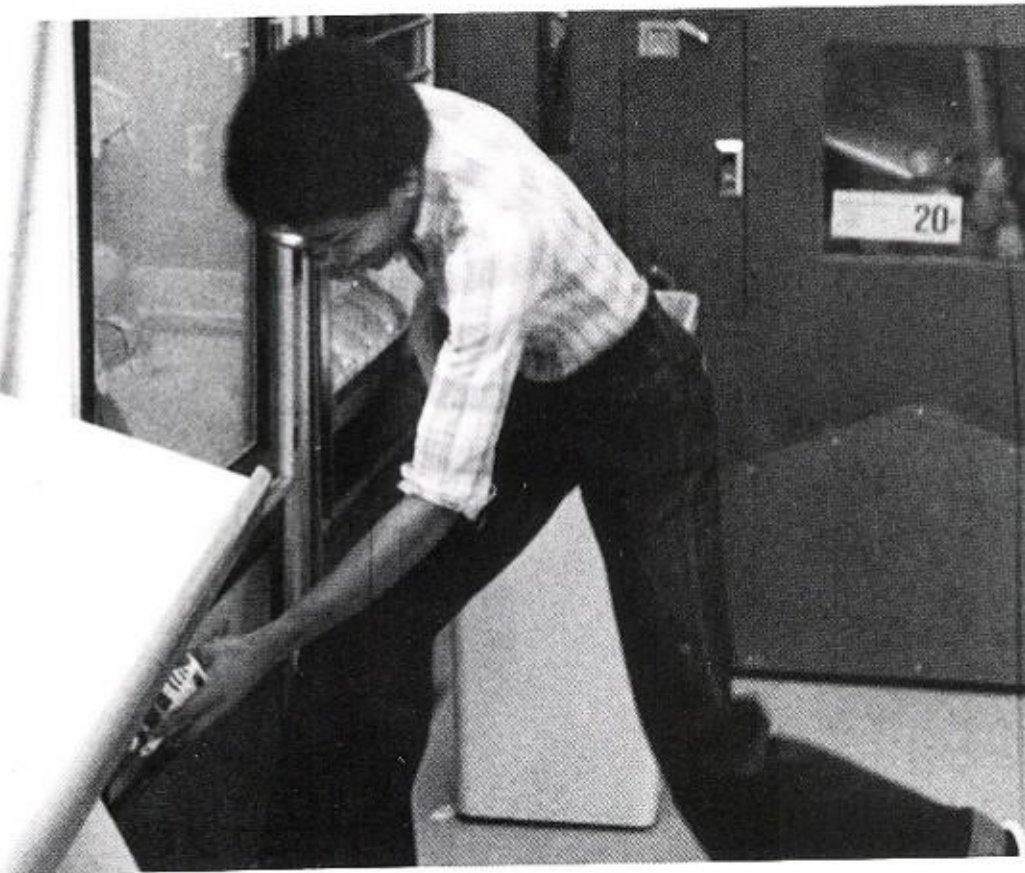

9. Tina Simmons: As a transfer student from Garfield, Tina knew only 1 other person at Hale, but this did not stop her from getting involved at school. Tina started the "Raiderettes", a group that performs dance routines at basketball halftime. She hopes she started a new tradition at Hale. Tina is a very outgoing person who loves to be involved.

10. Mary Baltzell: She is most often found helping somebody, by pushing a wheelchair or just being friendly. Throughout her 3 years at Hale, Mary has participated in almost everything, from the tennis team, Young Life, & Raider Rousers, as well as being a chairperson for several different committees including Sr. Prom,

YDD, and Christmas Dance. Outside of school, Mary is found helping out others by assisting as a Blue Bird Leader, being a camp counselor, or supporting sporting events.

11. Lois Frank: "I sing to my class to keep them awake." Although she never thought seriously about becoming a singer, Ms Frank has been reported as singing Steinbeck and Hemingway, making them a little more enjoyable, as well as singing popular songs to her classes. In her spare time, Ms Frank dreams of becoming independently wealthy & happy, which proves how crazy she really is!!

12. Michelle Williams: Michelle Williams' activities at Hale are centered around radio and athletics. She is the station manager of KNHC FM, Nathan Hale's radio station, and is active in softball and basketball. Michelle is also a National Merit recognized scholar. Michelle says she likes Hale as a school, but adds with a smile that "the bus service is rotten and there are no sidewalks!"

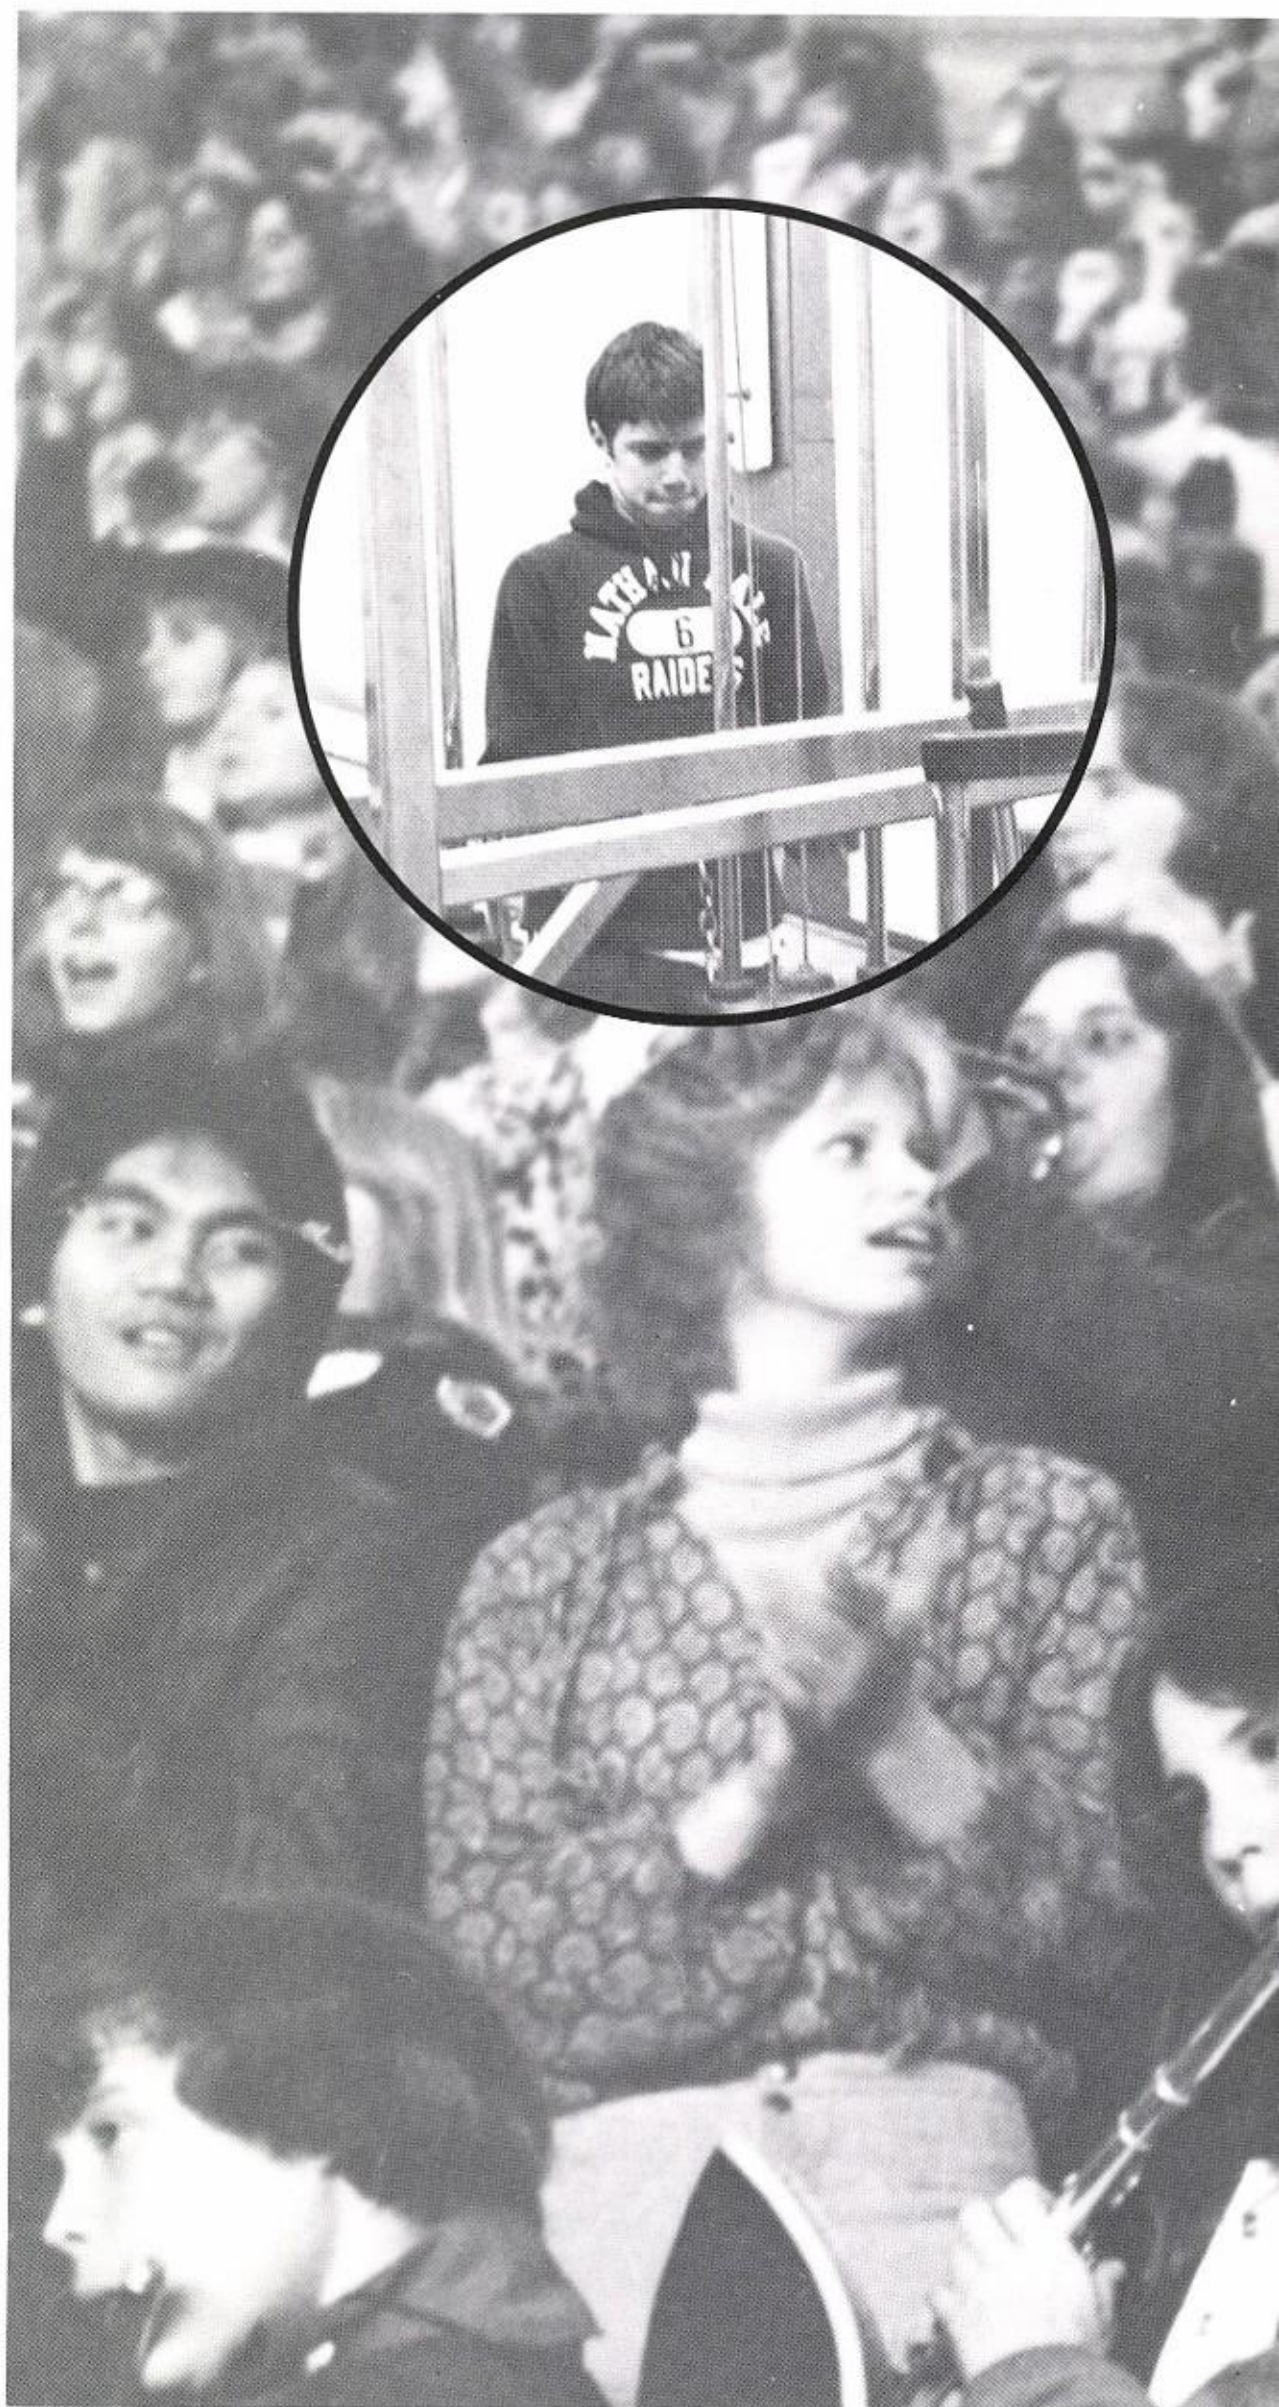

13. Suzy Saderstrom: Suzy has

practically overcome her handicap in the way she handles herself at school. She was actively involved as a member of the Student Union. "I like being involved in the Student Union. You feel like an important part of the school."

SPORTS

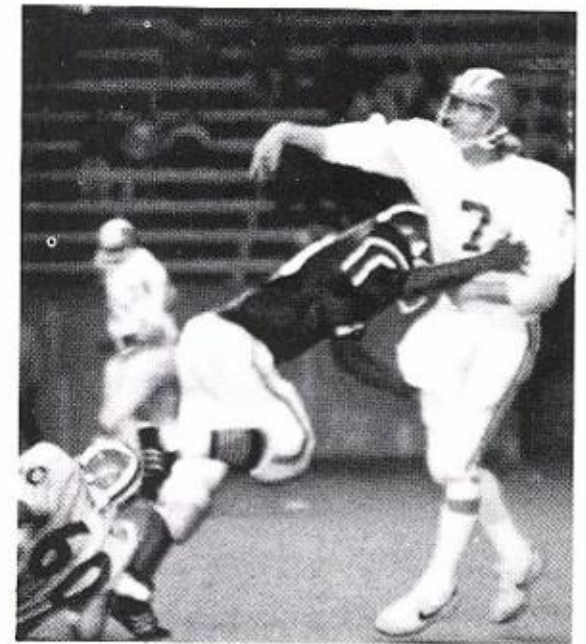

A BALANCED SEASON

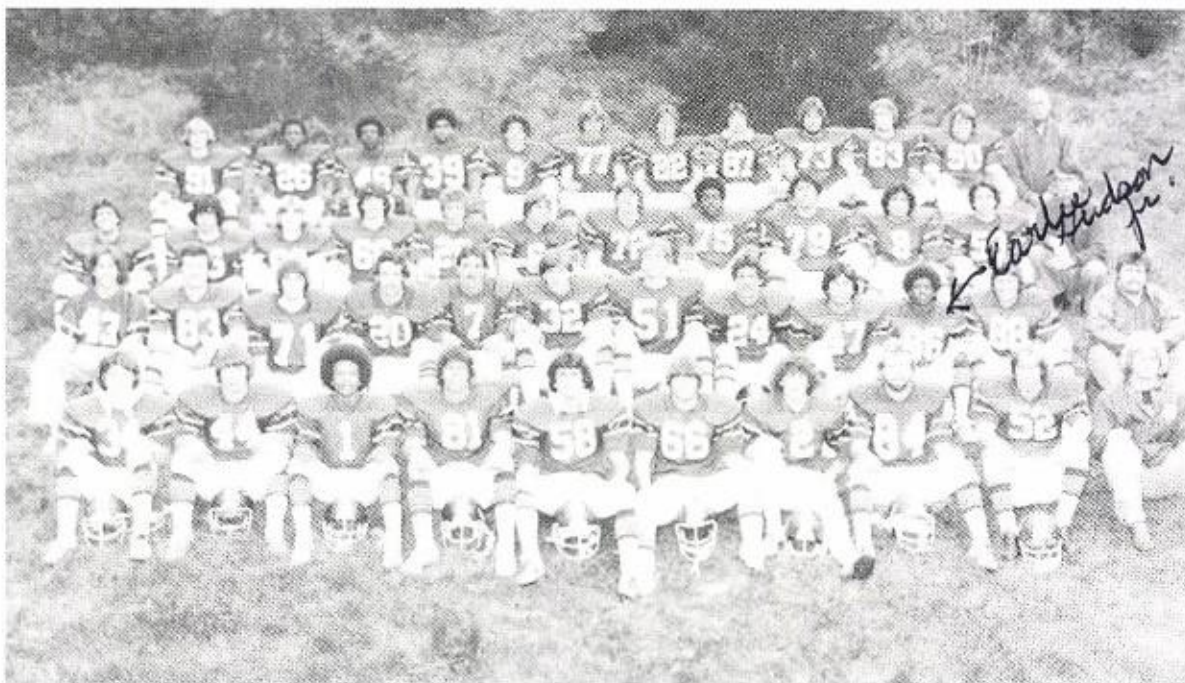

Pat Phares moves in to block the kick.

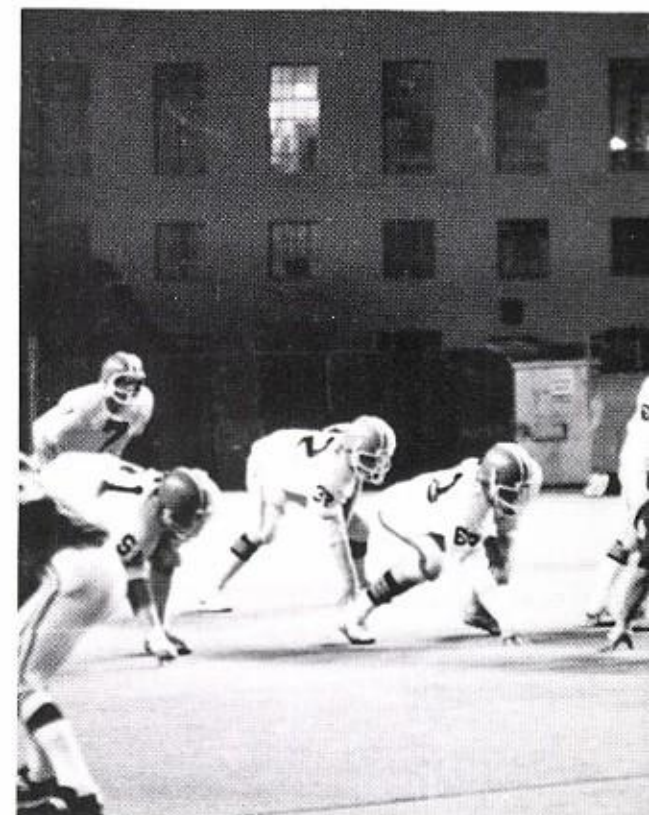

With a pre-season injury to Senior quarterback Mike Cameron, Junior Mike Harriman took over and led the Raiders to a 5-4 season. Opening the season against Ingraham and Garfield, the Raiders suffered their first of four losses on the season. After these defeats, the Raiders bounced back to win their next four straight. Splitting their next two games with a loss to Chief Sealth and a win over Blanchet, the Raiders ended the season with a tough loss to Franklin 20-17.

Terry Dietsch gives it her all.

"It was a building year," said Coach Lindsay of the 1978 volleyball team. The main goal of this young team, which had only one returning varsity player, was for each match to go to three games. The Raiders put up a good fight in obtaining this goal. There were many good matches with close scores. This year's strong points were serving and excellent leadership from senior captain Heidi Greider and co-captain Cheryl Anderson.

Nathan Hale swimmers began their season on a very encouraging note. In the first two meets they beat Ballard and Shorecrest by wide margins. Team captain Larry Little broke the school record in the 500 yd. freestyle with a time of 5:25. He broke that record again in the next meet. In the remaining four meets, they beat Ingraham and lost to Garfield, Shorewood and the Roosevelt Roughriders.

Hale had the most participants entered in the six school All Comers Meet. They won with a whopping score of 186 pts. nearly 100 pts. above the second place winner.

The biggest success of the season has been the boy's 400 yd. free style relay. The team is made up of Larry Little, Bob Kerns, J.B. Duff and Brian Lagerberg. They placed 1st in Metro and went to State.

Jena, Well I hope we can be friends in the future. I have to say what you said (white boy) angored me. I don't mind kidding saying ~~that~~ that. But I guess I can forget it. We should be friends in the future I hope. I think I understand how you felt. I hope we can see each other at a disco, party, or where ever. We should be friends. Maybe Chris and I should be. I mean I was just in a bad mood that day & she said something that triggered off my temper. I guess she was just kidding. But the tone seemed ^{to have} ~~mean~~ streak in it. Just enough to trigger me a little. So I twisted ~~her~~ her arm a little to hard. Then when she slapped the back of my head, it blew my temper. ^{want to be friends}

I mean we seemed to be getting along. But if she ~~doesn't~~ ^{want to be friends} then not get anything just give a call and I'll try to help. After all what are friends for. I'll another talk like that morning. I'll be seeing ya around

GYMNASTS SHOW SUCCESS

Joanne Rogers shows...

in her routine.

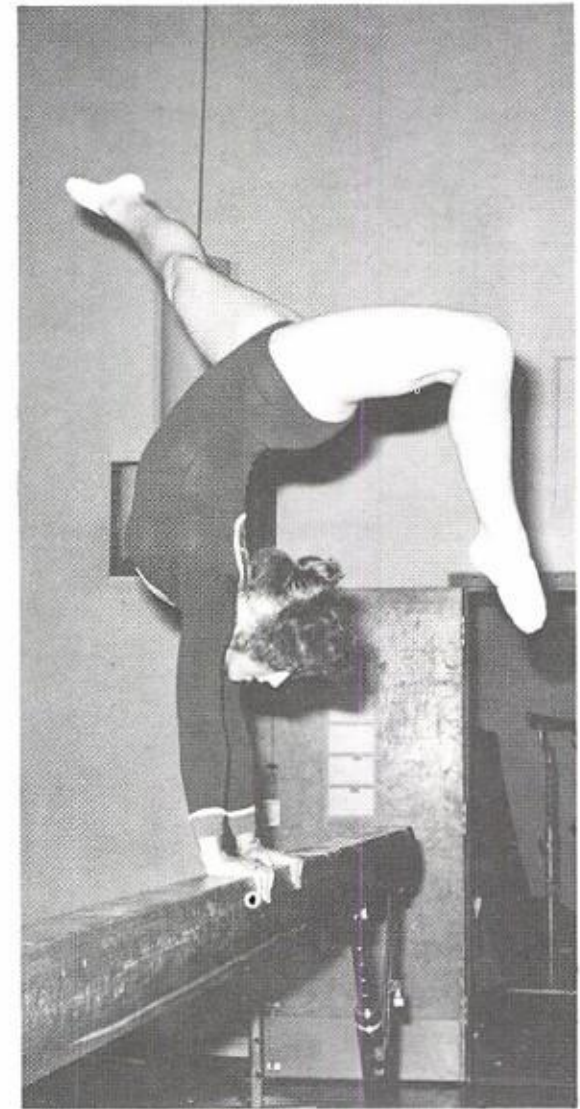

Susie Conroy keeps her balance.

With the team made up of mainly sophomores and freshmen, the Raiders gymnastics team did an excellent job this season. Team spirit and togetherness were important reasons for the success of the team.

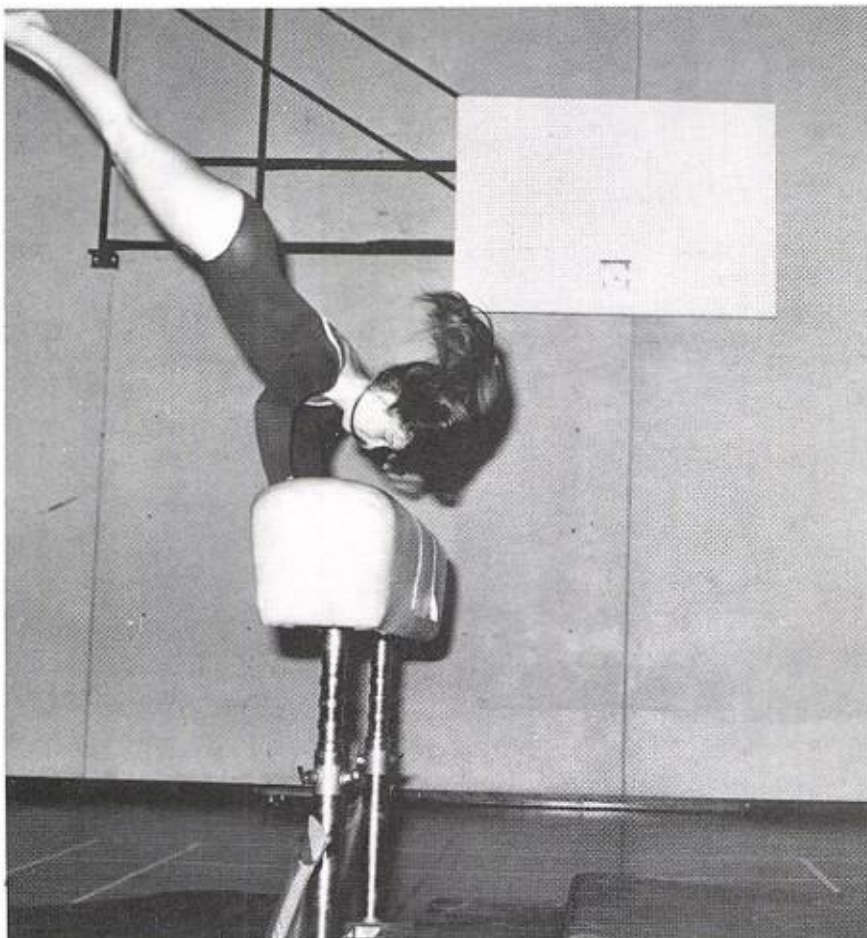

Contributing to the success was sophomore Susie Conroy, who placed 5th all around in Metro and competed in regionals. Cindy Harris, senior, put in a great year as captain. The experience gained this season will make them tough to beat next year!

Jump! Jump! Way up!

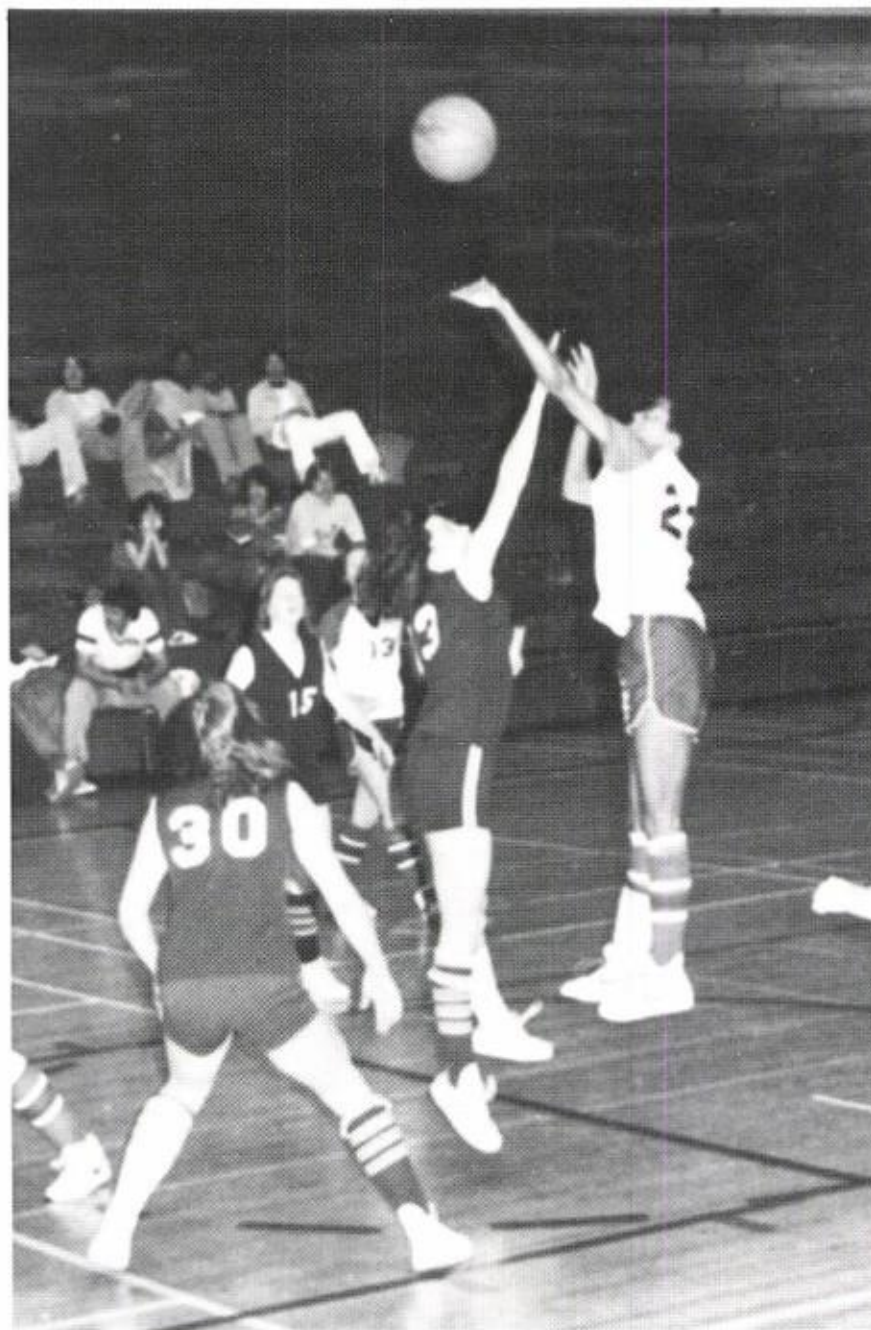

Stretch for it Ann!

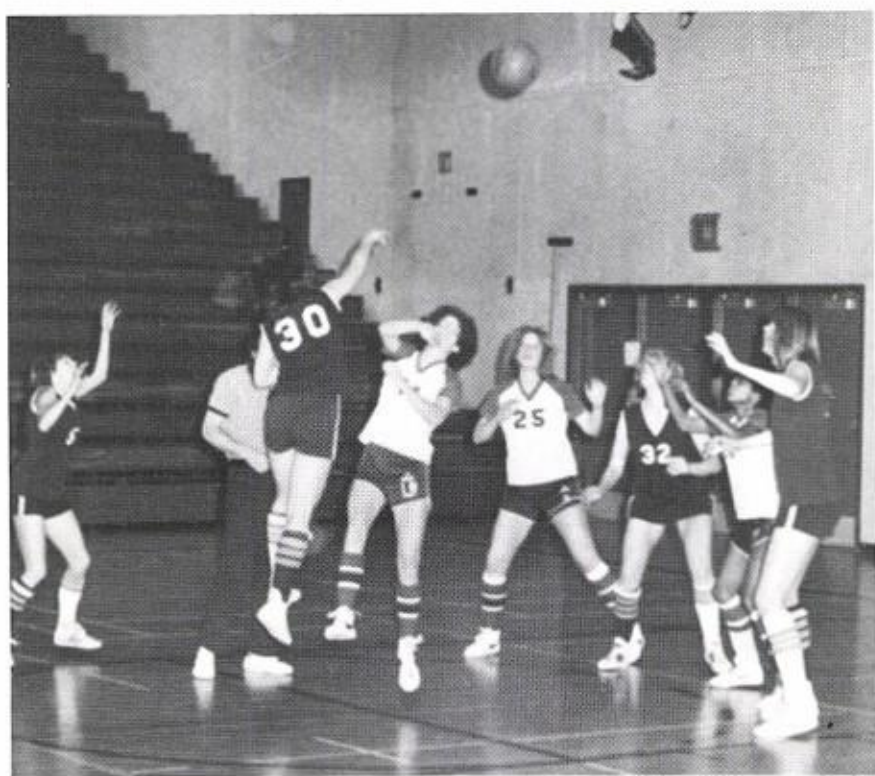

The final record of our female hoopsters isn't a true measure of the talent of the players. Injuries made a big difference in what otherwise might have been a successful season. The final record was 4-12. Seniors Laurie McCarthy and Michele Williams led in scoring and rebounding respectively. Heidi Greider and Debbie Davis, also seniors, will be remembered for their effort and performance. This year's juniors, sophomores and freshmen players are looking for a better year next year!

B-BALL FIGHTS HARD

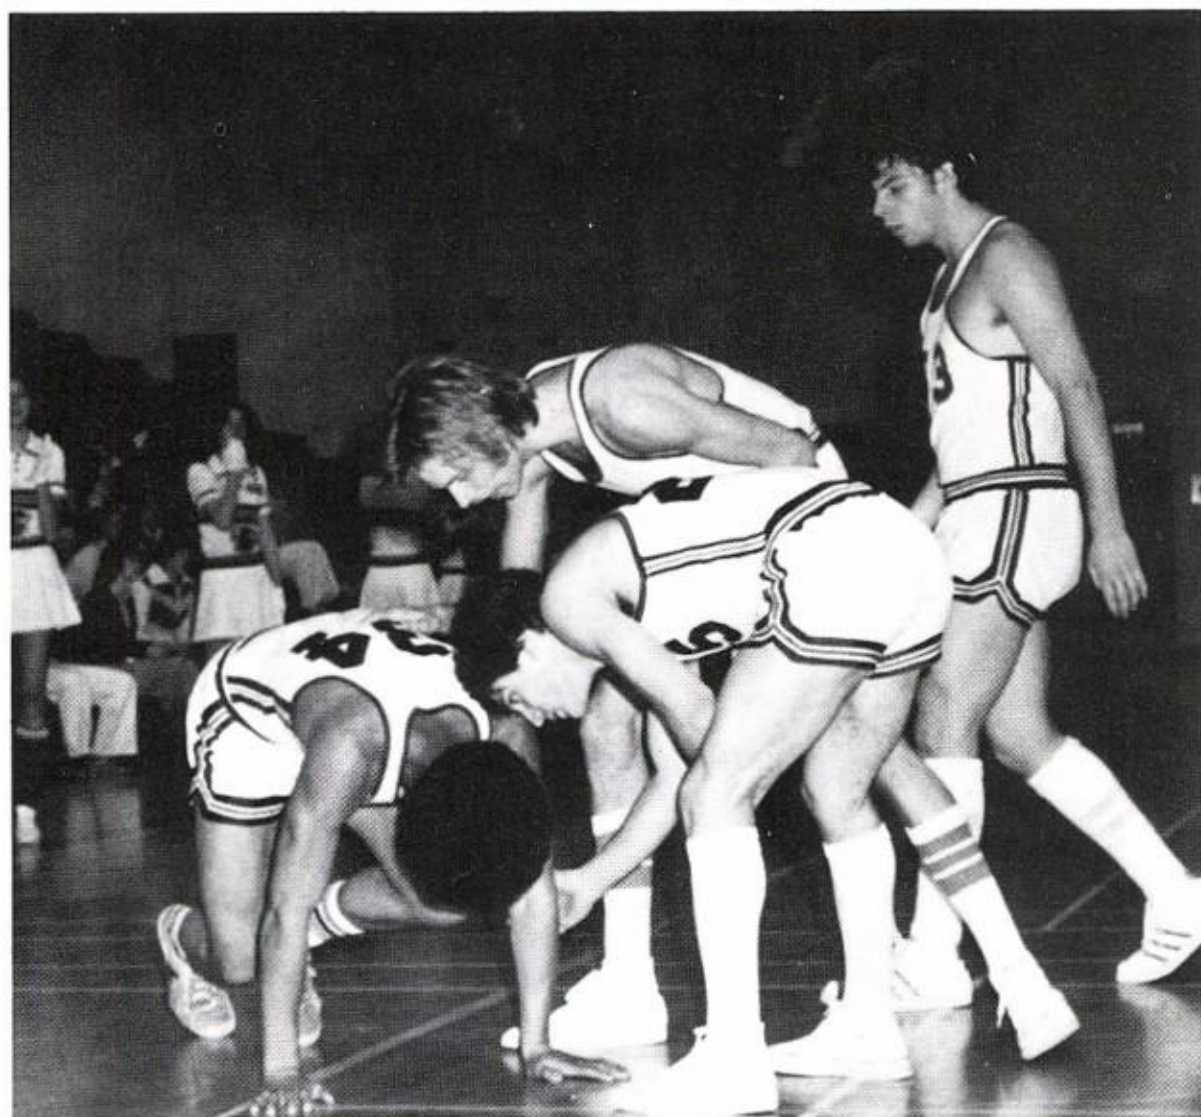

Team work, dedication to the sport, getting along with others, and height are some important factors which make a successful basketball team. The 78-79 basketball team had many of these factors. Even with a number of players out with injuries and sickness, our team fought their hardest to win. One of the high points of the season was beating Franklin twice when they were tied for 1st. Next season looks to be a promising one with returning juniors and sophomores.

GIRLS ENJOY THEIR SPORT

The girls Junior Varsity had a successful year due to good basic skills and team play. They had a much improved record over past years, ending with five wins and eleven loses. Coach Mehlert thinks the reason for their success is that they really "enjoyed" playing.

The boys Junior Varsity team utilized a variety of defences to set the tempo of their games. This squad was the best J.v. team Nathan Hale has had in the last five years, and one of the best in the city this year, as they finished in a first place tie in their division- Coach LaFond

The Raiders qualified four wrestlers for regionals. Joe Baillargeon, finishing 4th in his weight class, was the only Raider to qualify for state. State hopeful Jim Carroll unfortunately did not qualify. With many of this years wrestlers returning, the Raiders look forward to next year.

"The Social Studies department is the finest in the building, bar none . . ."

"I think most students who take Social Studies find that the things we do are interesting . . . It would be pretty difficult for a student to understand the oil embargo and the Middle East unless they have had some historical background . . ."

we have to be able to communicate . . ."*

It's really been a pleasure
knowing you were one of the best TA's I've ever rough year for you but I hope you'll have a great summer. (smile)

I'll see you next year and please touch. Hopefully I

Jenna
I'm really glad that I had some classes with you this year. Wasn't it fun in Mr. Ketterer's and Mr. Evans'?

We had a lot of fun running. Especially when we did eight laps. What a laugh! We have had a lot of fun though. I thought the Junior Class Breakfast was pretty good. You, Kathy, Carolyn, and Chris had me cracking up when we ~~were~~ went to Garfield. I'm also really happy that I got to be better friends with you and hope that we have more classes together next year. Be sure to have a really great summer; you deserve it. Say sweet, take care of yourself, and I'll see you next year. (I & my more concerts take place this summer, maybe I'll see you there).

Later!
Your friend,
Harou
